CONFESSION OF SIN

From the Dutch Psalter of Peter Dathenus (1566).....read responsively

O eternal God and merciful Father, we humble ourselves before Your great Majesty against which we have frequently and grievously sinned.

We acknowledge that we deserve nothing less than eternal death. We are unclean before You and children of wrath. We continually transgress Your commandments, failing to do what You have commanded us, and doing that which You have expressly forbidden.

We all like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to His own way. We acknowledge our waywardness, and are heartily sorry for all our sins.

We confess, to our humiliation and to the praise of Your mercy, that our transgressions are innumerable, and that our debt is so great that we cannot even begin to repay.

We are not worthy to be called Your children, nor to lift up our eyes heavenward to You in prayer.

Nevertheless, O Lord God and gracious Father, we know that You do not desire the death of the sinner, but rather that he should turn to You and live.

We know that Your mercy toward those who turn to You is infinite, and so we take courage to call upon You from the depths of our hearts, trusting in our Mediator Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Forgive all our sins for Christ's sake. Have compassion upon us in our infirmities.

Wash us in the pure fountain of His blood, so that we may become clean and white as snow.

Cover us with His innocence and righteousness, for the glory of Your name.

Deliver our understanding from all blindness, and our hearts from all willfulness and rebellion.

We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mark 5:21-43 (NASB)

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore. <sup>22</sup> One of the synagogue officials named Jairus came up, and on seeing Him, fell at His feet <sup>23</sup> and implored Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will get well and live." <sup>24</sup> And He went off with him; and a large crowd was following Him and pressing in on Him. <sup>25</sup> A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse— <sup>27</sup> after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak. <sup>28</sup> For she thought, "If I just touch His garments, I will get well." <sup>29</sup> Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. <sup>30</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?" <sup>31</sup> And His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' " <sup>32</sup> And He looked around to see the woman who had done this. <sup>33</sup> But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup> And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your affliction." <sup>35</sup> While He was still speaking, they came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?" <sup>36</sup> But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid any longer, only believe." <sup>37</sup> And He allowed no one to accompany Him, except Peter and James and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup> They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing. <sup>39</sup> And entering in, He said to them, "Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep." <sup>40</sup> They began laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He took along the child's father and mother and His own companions, and entered the room where the child was. <sup>41</sup> Taking the child by the hand, He said to her, "Talitha kum!" (which translated means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!"). <sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded. <sup>43</sup> And He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said that something should be given her to eat.
